Codicil to the Will of The Rev^r M. J.
Boush D. D.

This is a Codicil to the last Will of me Martin Joseph Routh D.D. President of St Mary Magdalen College in the University of Oxford Whereas by the death intestate and without issue of my late Sister Sophia Sheppard Widow which happened on the thirty first day of July last I as her heir at law have become seized or entitled in fee of or to certain estates in the Parish of Wandsworth in the County of Surrey and in the Parishes of Ticehurst and Englefield in the County of Berks purchased by her and of or to which she died seized or entitled All which estates I am convinced it was her intention should on her death belong to Magdalen College aforeaid I therefore devise all those of my said lands tenements and hereditaments situate as well in the said Parish of Wandsworth in the County of Surrey as in the said Parishes of Ticehurst and Englefield in the said County of Berks for to which I am now seized or entitled at law or in equity as the heir of my said late Sister together with the rights members and appurtenances thereof respectively unto and to the use of Henry Pole the younger of Waltham Place in the said County of Berks Esquire Robert Meadows White Rector of Plymbridge in the County of Gloucester D.D. and William Harris the younger of Rugby in the County of Warwick Gentleman and their heirs and assigns nevertheless In trust for the President and Scholars of the College of Saint Mary Magdalene aforesaid and their Successors for the sole use of the said College for ever And I hereby bequeath to the said President and Scholars a sum of money equal to such rents and profits of the estates aforesaid as either shall have been received by me in my lifetime but not paid over or accounted for to the College aforesaid or shall be due to me at my decease And I hereby confirm my said Will in other respects In witness whereof I the said Martin Joseph Routh have hereunto set my hand this twenty eighth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty eight.
