FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1851.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of October 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Edward Adolphus St. Maur (commonly called Lord Seymour) was, by command of Her Majesty, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of October 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the fourth day of November next, be further prorogued to Thursday the fifteenth day of January next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of October 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Police Courts in the Metropolis," it was amongst other things enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to alter the number of magistrates appointed to any of the said Courts; and whereas it was declared by an Order in Council, dated the eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty, that it is expedient that the number of magistrates should be reduced to twenty, as vacancies among the said magistrates shall occur; and whereas by the same Order Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, was pleased to order and direct that a vacancy then existing at one of the said Courts (that is to say), at the Southwark Police Court, shall not be supplied; and whereas it has been found that the number of the police magistrates cannot be reduced as is proposed in the said recited Order without detriment to the police service, and Her Majesty has been advised that the vacancy at the said Southwark Police Court should be filled up; Her Majesty, therefore, is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that the said Order in Council, of the eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty, reducing the number of the said police magistrates, be rescinded and repealed.

And the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart. one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of October 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling ecclesiastical corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for enabling ecclesiastical corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for determining the portion of the improved value to be made payable to us in a certain lease of beds of clay, earth, loam, and sand, about to be granted by the vicar of Burham, in the county of Kent.

"Whereas by the said last-recited Act it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole (with certain exceptions, which do not include vicars), from time to time, with the consent or consents thereby required, to grant or demise by lease, in manner thereafter mentioned, any mines, minerals, quarries, or beds belonging to such corporation, together with the right of working or of opening and working the same :

"And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted, that in case of any lease of mines, minerals, quarries, or beds granted thereunder, such portion of the improved value accruing under such lease, as by the authority provided in the first-recited Act shall be determined, not being more than three-fourth parts, nor less than one moiety of such improved value, shall forthwith, and from time to time as the same shall accrue, be paid to us, and shall be subject to the provisions relating to moneys payable to us :

"And whereas, with the consent required by the said Act, and otherwise in accordance with the provisions thereof, it is proposed by the Reverend Lambert Blackwell Larking, the present vicar of Burham aforesaid, to grant or demise by lease, certain beds of earth, clay, loam, and sand, with the produce thereof in and under certain lands situate in the parishes of Burham and Aylesford, in the said county of Kent, belonging to him as such vicar :

"And whereas the improved value to accrue under the lease so proposed to be granted as aforesaid will, according to the meaning of the same Act, be the whole of the royalty, or other reservation or reservations contained in the said lease in respect of such beds, not including the surface of such lands :

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that three-fourth parts of the whole net amount of the reservation or reservations to be made in the said lease so to be granted, whether consisting of rent, royalty, or otherwise, shall, by such lease, be made directly payable to us ; and that we shall have all the like remedies in respect of such three fourth parts of any such reservation as aforesaid, as if the same were a separate rent reserved to us as lessors or grantors and reversioners of the premises comprised in such lease, independently of the rights and remedies of the said Lambert Blackwell Larking and his successors, vicars of Burham, in respect of the remaining one-fourth part thereof, without any priority or preference between us and the vicar of Burham for the time being : and further, that we shall have full benefit and advantage, either jointly with or separately from the said Lambert Blackwell Larking, and his successors, vicars of Burham, for the time being, of all or any of the covenants, conditions, and agreements in the said lease to be contained on the lessee's part, in like manner as if we had been grantors, lessors, and reversioners as aforesaid, and as in such lease shall be expressed ; and that for effectuating such objects, the said lease shall and may be framed in such manner, and contain all such clauses and provisions as we shall approve, and shall have full force accordingly, any rule of law, statute, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose, that we be authorized to apply, from time to time as we shall think fit, all or any part of the moneys which shall be received by us by virtue or on account of the reservation or reservations aforesaid (after deducting therefrom all costs, charges, and expenses which we may have incurred in respect of the premises), towards making better provision for the cure of souls within the present limits of the parish of Burham.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been given to the said Lambert Blackwell Larking, as such vicar as aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the first-recited Act, and he has made no objection thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.
